Whin Cottage, Kildonan

Stone built detached former farm cottage at High Kildonan. Accommodation comprises entrance porch, hallway, study, lounge, sun lounge, kitchen, downstairs toilet, family bathroom and on the upper floor three double bedrooms and two single bedrooms. Large appended workshop/garage and laundry room. Double glazing and oil fired central heating.

Directions: From Brodick Pier turn left and proceed in a southerly direction through the villages of Lamlash, Whiting Bay and Dippin. On passing through Dippin maintain the main road above Kildonan where after a distance of approximately 14 miles from Brodick, Woodside Farm is on the left and the track to Whin Cottage is immediately after this on your left. Proceed down this rough track for approximately 400 yards and after the track bears right, Whin Cottage is on the right hand side.

OTHER INFORMATION:
Whin Cottage is a former farm cottage which has recently been renovated and updated internally and is now a comfortable, modern family home. The cottage is set in a rural location at High Kildonan on the outskirts of the village of Kildonan, one of the most southerly villages on Arran which has a widespread farming community. Kildonan is very popular with visitors and has beautiful sandy beaches, a hotel with restaurant and bar, an excellent village shop and well utilised village hall. The nearest primary school is at Whiting Bay some four miles to the north with the secondary school at Lamlash to which all pupils are conveyed daily by bus.
