Rosebank has a small neat front garden adjacent to which is a parking area allowing two cars to draw off the main road. There is a patio area to the rear and the lawned garden is relatively flat and bounded by open fields beyond.

SERVICES:

The property is connected to mains electricity and mains water and drainage is to a modern septic tank shared with the adjacent cottage. Central heating is by radiators heated by the Rayburn cooker in the kitchen.

COUNCIL TAX:

The property is banded "D" paying £1,152.00 in the financial year 2008/2009 exclusive of water and waste water charges.

OTHER INFORMATION:

Despite being a very old stone cottage Rosebank has benefited from upgrading and modernisation by the present owner. It is officially the second highest house on Arran and enjoys beautiful views across the Firth of Clyde towards the Ayrshire Coast, Ailsa Craig and beyond to Kilbrannan Sound and Sanda Island and on a clear day Northern Island.

The Cottage is located about 1½ miles from Kilmory where there is Primary School and a village shop and the famous Lagg Hotel. In the other direction it is 4 miles to Kildonan, and the Secondary School for the island is at Lamlash to which pupils are conveyed daily.

Appended to Rosebank is the small Rosebank Garden Cottage which does not form part of the sale. The main house which is the subject of sale is a very attractive property with spacious accommodation in a most attractive location.
