BEDROOM 7:

5.45m x 4.66m [17'11" x 15'3"] overall

Substantial family room presently accommodating a double and two single beds and having a large window to the rear with fitted washbasin. The original fireplace, which is not presently in use, is still in place with an ornate mantelpiece.

GARDEN:

Shalarel has a small neat front garden leading to the wide pavement at the front, with a footpath leading round to the sheltered rear garden patio areas where there is a timber garden shed and the large modern oil tank.

Located to the rear of the property is the Boiler House/Drying Room and there is an externally located rotary dryer.

SERVICES:

The property is connected to the mains electricity, water and drainage. Central heating is by the substantial oil fired boiler and radiators.

COUNCIL TAX:

Shalarel is banded 'F' paying £1,664.00 during 2010/11 excluding water and waste water charges.

OTHER INFORMATION:

Shalarel is a Victorian red sandstone building which was originally a prominent village shop with appended residential accommodation. Over the years the property was sub-divided creating two independent villas both with substantial and comfortable accommodation.

In the past Shalarel (previously known as Tigh-na-Mara) was a successful Guest House but in recent years has been used as a private residence although the accommodation lends itself very well for commercial use.

Shalarel sits in the area of Brodick known as Invercloy with its own shops, bank and other amenities including the library, tennis courts, bowling green and of course the 18 hole golf course.

Brodick has its own primary school - the main secondary school being in Lamlash some 4 miles away to which pupils are conveyed daily.

Brodick is the main ferry terminal for the island as well as the main shopping centre. It has a beautiful beach with spectacular views across to Brodick Castle, Goat Fell and other hills around.
